

Let's Talk HR series

Theme: Managing the transgenerational human resources in an enterprise

Let's Talk HR series

Date:

Friday 21 February 2014

Programme:

- 16h45 Welcome Address
Mr. Raj Auckloo
Director, HRDC
- 16h50 Managing the transgenerational human resources in an enterprise
Mr. Eddy Jolicoeur
Group Head of HR, MCB Limited
- 17h40 Discussions
- 18h00 Networking &
Refreshment

Venue:

HRDC Lecture Theatre
4th Floor, NG Tower
Cybercity, Ebène

Let's Talk HR is a series of talks initiated by the Human Resource Development Council (HRDC). The aim is to bring HR professionals together on the same platform to learn, share, network and shape ideas in order to add value to the HR field to the advantage of all.

The objectives of this event are to:

- Provide a platform for reflection, sharing of experiences and analysis of practices pertaining to HR;
- Foster cross-fertilisation of ideas and initiatives that have been successfully implemented in some organisations; and
- Promote networking and socialising with peers.

Theme: Managing the transgenerational HR in an enterprise

- What's so new about employees of diverse ages working together in one company?
- Very different skills and abilities, and different ways of working and communicating.
- While this rich diversity of talents and styles is a tremendous advantage for organisations, it can also be a challenge if not properly understood and managed.
- Sharing his experience and insights.....

Guest Speaker:

Mr Eddy Jolicoeur
Group Head of HR, MCB Limited

Holder of a BA (Hons) in Economics and Social Policy & Administration from the University of Kent & MSc in HRM from the University of Surrey, Eddy has known a rich career spanning the breadth of the sugar industry in Mauritius (1983-2000). He joined Rogers & Co. Ltd. in 2000 as Chief Human Resources Executive and joined the MCB Ltd. in August 2008 as Head of Human Resources. He is also Adjunct Professor at UoM where he teaches on a part-time basis.